

SUNDAY, AUGUST 4, 2013  11:00 A.M. TO 2:00 P.M.

FREE WITH MUSEUM ADMISSION AND FREE FOR HISTORY CENTER MEMBERS

Discover the history of combat canines and meet local certified therapy and service dogs.

Learn the story of Dog Jack, a companion dog from the 102nd Pennsylvania Volunteers whose life-like figure is featured in the History Center's newest exhibition, Pennsylvania's Civil War.

Visitors who own certified service animals are encouraged to bring them into the museum for this special event.

For more information, please contact Sarah Rooney at 412-454-6373 or serooney@heinzhistorycenter.org

1212 Smallman Street • Pittsburgh, PA • 412-454-6000 • www.heinzhistorycenter.org

Participating Organizations: Allegheny County Sheriff's Office • Allegheny County Fire Marshal's Office
ADA for the City of Pittsburgh • Animal Friends • Animal Rescue League • CAESAR Inc. • Hello Bully • Moloney's K-9 Academy
North American Police Work Dog Association • VA Hospital therapy dogs • Western Pennsylvania Humane Society